

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:
Bruce Jankowitz for AHIOS
brucejankowitz@gmail.com

PRS of Texas Joins AHIOS

Newest Member of Association to Work with Colleagues from the Industry's Premier HIM Outsourcing Organizations to Promote Excellence in PHI Disclosure Management

BOSTON, MA, December 1, 2015 — The Association of Health Information Outsourcing Services (AHIOS), an organization of executives from the leading health information management (HIM) outsourcing companies who promote excellence in managing risk and compliance issues around the disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI) announced today that PRS of Texas, LLC has joined the growing industry association.

Based in Fort Worth, PRS of Texas provides a broad spectrum of customized ROI solutions spanning complete, remote and shared ROI processing models for clients including physician offices, clinics, surgery centers and Mental Health Mental Retardation (MHMR) facilities. Entering its 16th year, locally-owned PRS of Texas provides clients with a unique approach to the ROI process that reduces record management costs, improves the quality and level of service, and enhances compliance with ever-changing state and federal regulations related to privacy and security of PHI.

“We are thrilled to be a part of AHIOS and to be working with other executives from the leading HIM outsourcing organizations to promote excellence in the delivery of ROI outsourcing services,” said E. Earl Hauss, R.N., B.S.N., C.H.P., founder and CEO, PRS of Texas. “Joining AHIOS will help ensure that we continue to keep abreast of the critical and ever-changing regulations and compliance issues, while also benefiting from the association’s educational programs such as the Certified Release of Information Specialist (CRIS) test which recognizes member organization employees who have mastered the knowledge required to manage the intricate risk and compliance issues around PHI disclosure management.”

“In today’s quality and performance driven healthcare environment, staying on top of the legislative, regulatory, technological and educational issues required to successfully manage PHI disclosure management can be a daunting task for any one company,” said Stephen Hynes, president of AHIOS and CEO of MRO Corporation. “Our newest member, PRS of Texas, is an important addition to AHIOS and will strengthen our advocacy and educational initiatives which are vital to ensuring that our industry can continue to deliver the highest quality PHI disclosure management services and to do our part to create a more efficient healthcare system in this transformational era of reform.”

Visit <http://www.ahios.org/about/our-members.php> to view the complete list of AHIOS members.

About the Association of Health Information Outsourcing Services

Established in 1996, AHIOS promotes, strengthens and enhances the health information management outsourcing industry while ensuring excellence in managing risk and compliance issues associated with the disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI). Its goals are to increase awareness of the value, importance and complexity of the industry’s services; establish standards of excellence for the industry of health information management outsourcing; pursue fair and equitable treatment of the industry through legislative, regulatory and legal processes; and create educational and networking opportunities for members.

###