Record Reproduction Services Joins AHIOS

Newest AHIOS Member to Work with Other Executives at the Industry's Premier HIM Outsourcing Association to Promote Excellence in PHI Disclosure Management

BOSTON, August 20, 2018 — The Association of Health Information Outsourcing Services (AHIOS), an organization of executives from the leading health information management (HIM) outsourcing companies who promote excellence in managing risk and compliance issues around disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI) announced today that Record Reproduction Services has joined the growing association.

Record Reproduction Services (RRS) is a Philadelphia-based company founded in 1994 to provide outsourced ROI services to hospitals and medical groups. Over the past 24 years, RRS has grown from a locally focused operation to an established, nationwide ROI provider managing hospitals and physician networks across the United States.

“Record Reproduction Services is proud to be a member of AHIOS and contribute to the Association’s important work in ensuring standards of excellence for the entire ROI industry” said Zachary Perry, CEO at RRS. “We are looking forward to working with AHIOS members to exchange ideas and elevate the landscape for HIM professionals and our client organizations.”

“We have entered a very challenging time in healthcare and with ever-increasing and complex compliance and quality assurance issues, the need for ROI outsourcing is greater than ever before,” said Jim Bailey, president, AHIOS. “At this juncture, it’s crucial that the ROI industry comes together to deliver the highest quality services and create a more efficient healthcare system amidst the changes of reform. Record Reproduction Services is a wonderful example of a company that will strengthen our advocacy and education initiatives for the ROI industry and that will help us address complex quality assurance and compliance issues that are essential to the work of our member organizations and the entire healthcare industry.”
